THE TRAIL BLAZER

VOLUME FORTY-SIX - 2013 EDITION

Celebrating 56 Years of Sponsoring Hikes and Outings

The TRAIL BLAZER is published each year as a record of the Club's activities and a record of members' hiking accomplishments. In 1956 a group of people who had been hiking under the banner of AMERICAN YOUTH HOSTEL were working on a 22-mile trail. On January 23, 1957, several of them had a meeting to discuss the formation of a new hiking club. They decided to name it THE INDIANAPOLIS HIKING CLUB. The constitution they drafted listed the following: "The purpose of the Club shall be the encouragement of the love of nature; the dissemination of knowledge of the attractions of the out-of-doors; the promotion of outdoor recreation in the form of hikes and outings; and the sponsoring of other activities incidental to the foregoing."

Following the desires of the founders, the Club has remained faithful to the objectives for which it was founded. However, the Club has changed with the times and the desires of newer members.

Over the years the Club has been most fortunate in having dedicated officers to guide the Club. During 2013 the following people spent much time and effort in guiding the Club:

Vice-President - Chuck Turner
Pathfinders - Jean Ballinger

2013 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Indianapolis Hiking Club concluded another successful and event-filled year on September 30, 2013. We finished the year with 619 members, down about 44 from 2012. This is the second year in a row our membership dropped. We believe the chief cause is that many of our longtime members who are no longer able to hike have chosen not to renew, not unexpectedly since the passing of patriarch Bill Larrison in 2011. Still, we added 54 new members this past year and the percentage of members actively hiking remains high. During 2013 the Club offered 2,018 hikes - an average of 5.5 hikes a day - making us one of the most active hiking clubs in the country. The average attendance was 8.3 people per hike, up slightly from 2012. Collectively 16,697 members hiked 104,230 miles this past year. We scheduled numerous morning, afternoon and evening hikes in and around Indianapolis. We also visited most Indiana State Parks and State Forests, the Hoosier National Forest, Nature Conservatories, the Knobstone Trail, wildlife refuges and numerous rural communities in Indiana and nearby states. As in past years, many theme hikes were offered, including wildflowers, museums, concerts, restaurants, flower gardens and opportunities to learn more about the geography, geology and history of our great city and state.

Following are some notable highlights from 2013:

To kick off the new Club year, in mid-October 43 people visited Gnow Bone Camp to enjoy the beautiful fall colors. For the third year in a row, an orienteering hike was held. People organized themselves into teams and had to locate designated markers in the forest using only a compass and trail map. The winning team was the first to find all their markers and return. There was also a less strenuous hike for those who just wanted to take in the autumn scenery. Following the hikes everyone enjoyed a picnic lunch.

In November, the Club sponsored its first Chili Cook-off. Following a six-mile hike, about 70 people sampled 15 different homemade chili recipes and numerous side dishes and desserts. Thanks to Narcisso Povinelli, Joe Sergi and Ed Wright for organizing the fun event. June Sergi received the most votes for best chili, something her husband Joe (a chili aficionado) is still trying to live down. We are going to repeat the cook-off this year with homemade soup.

In December, we had the most successful Christmas Party ever with over 150 members and guests attending. The party gives us a chance to see our Hiking Club friends dressed up in something other than hiking garb. The catered event featured wonderful food and live entertainment. Special logo tee shirts were distributed to the winners of the Club's Annual Achievement Awards and new 25-year members were announced. Third time winner of the Bill and Nell Larrison Pinnacle Award – David Kincaid – received special recognition.

Every Tuesday in January saw the Club hiking in the snow through the beautiful forests at Bradford Woods, something we have been doing every January for more than 25 years. All told, 107 hikers attended three hikes and most enjoyed lunch at Po's or Gray's after the hike. One hike had to be cancelled due to extreme cold.

In February, surprisingly 13 members and guests showed up for a hike at Sanibel Island off of Florida's west coast. Who knows where hikes will pop up on our schedule in 2014.

In early March, the Club's annual winter three-day outing returned to Spring Mill State Park. Thanks to Mary Ann Layman for organizing this event. Although rainy weather kept the crowds down a bit from past years, 50 people stayed at the inn enjoying hiking, playing games and curling up by the fire. As always, the hiking was great and everyone enjoyed a catered dinner on Saturday night.

Ninety-three people attended the annual wildflower hikes each Tuesday in April. The Indiana woods come alive this time of year. Thanks to Mary Ann Layman for leading these hikes. She is very knowledgeable about wild flowers and you can learn a lot by listening to her commentary.

For the 16th year in a row, the Club enjoyed three days of hiking in mid-April at Smoky Mountains National Park. About 60 members and guests attended. Jean Ballinger deserves a lot of credit for continuing to organize this fun trip every year. Also, thanks to Ron Mutzl who assisted with leading the longer hikes.

Also in April, Chuck Turner led a 10-mile night hike on the Low Gap Trail in Morgan Monroe State Forest, the first night woods hike that we can recall. Those who participated had such a good time, Chuck is going to schedule another night hike this fall and also schedule a hike at dawn.

As he does every year, Jeff Edmondson led numerous hikes on Indiana's most challenging trail – The Knobstone. These hikes are not easy but rewarding, especially after you complete your first one, something to aspire to do in 2014. Our strongest hikers use Jeff's hikes to help condition themselves for upcoming adventures like the Appalachian Trail and the Grand Canyon.

The Indianapolis Hiking Club missed few chances to create a favorable impression during 2013. The Club was represented at various fairs and events, including the Quiet Sports Expo, the WTHR Health & Fitness Expo, the National Bank of Indianapolis Wellness Expo, the Dow Agrosiences Employee Wellness Week, and the Hoosier Outdoor Experience. The Club and IHC hikes were featured in various print media, most notably TheFitList column in The Indianapolis Star and a Broad Ripple Gazette article. President Jeff Edmondson appeared on WFYI's No Limits radio program about Indiana trails.

Concerned that the Club has not been active enough maintaining Indiana trails, the Board adopted a two-mile section of the Three Lakes Trail in Morgan Monroe State Forest. Two trail maintenance hikes were held to remove trash and clear the trail. These will continue on a regular basis in 2014. We also plan to do regular trail maintenance (especially trash removal) at our most popular venue - Eagle Creek Park.

We have a goal to offer more slow and easy options (3-4 miles) for members who prefer less challenging hikes. A good example is the Wednesday morning hike in downtown Indy on the Cultural Trail, which has become quite popular. We hope to add more slow and easy choices in 2014.

As we have done every year since the mid 70's, in May the Club visited Gnaw Bone Camp in Brown County over the three-day Memorial Day holiday. Members love bringing their grandchildren to stay in the rustic cabins for three days. Quite a few hikers drove down for the day and participated in the events.

The Club held its annual picnic in late July at Eagle Creek Park. More than 100 people attended and enjoyed good weather, a pre-picnic hike and great food. A highlight of the picnic was a cupcake contest organized by the Social Committee, spearheaded by Sue Bullock. Everyone in attendance was encouraged to sample all the entries and vote on the best taste and presentation. Congratulations to Mary Bruss whose cupcakes were declared the winner.

In early September, 70 members and guests enjoyed a week of hiking and sightseeing in the rugged mountains of West Virginia. We stayed at a lodge in the beautiful Cannan Valley SP located in the highest valley east of the Rockies, where the scenery is similar to what you might find in Maine and Canada. Check out great photos of this trip on the Club website. Many thanks to Richard and Edeltraud Evans for orchestrating this trip, and to Mary Ann and Bob Layman and Ron and Ellen Mutzl who ably assisted scouting and leading hikes. For the lucky people who attended, this was a most enjoyable week.

In late September, Bob and Olga Hackenberg organized a Club trip to Bavaria Germany, including five days of hiking in the German and Austrian Alps. This is the third time Bob and Olga have led this trip. The 10 members who attended also got to attend Oktoberfest celebrations in Munich.

The Club year concluded with our annual General Assembly on September 5th during which the current board was elected.

As is the case every year, in 2013 many of our members hiked on their own and with other organizations to interesting destinations all over the world, including Italy, Ireland, Croatia, Utah, the Appalachian Trail, the Grand Canyon and Glacier National Park. We all enjoy sharing their adventures after they return and they inspire us to explore new things.

Our new year is off to a great start. The October/November hike schedule is the largest ever and we expect to offer more than 2,000 hikes again this year. Extended trips have already been announced for McCormick's Creek SP in the winter, Smoky Mountains NP, Gnaw Bone Camp, Hadrian's Wall in Scotland, Shenandoah NP, Washington DC, Harpers Ferry WV, Antietam National Battlefield and Turkey Run SP in late fall. Of course there will also be a Christmas Party, Club Picnic and Oktoberfest.

We urge you to get out and hike more often and invite your friends and family. It is good for your body and soul.
