Saturday and Sunday, September 1-3 - Labor Day Week-end at Natural Bridge State Park, Kentucky

We are planning to join the Cincinnati Club at Natural Bridge State Park, Slade, Kentucky for the week-end. The Park is approximately 225 miles from Indianapolis, in the beautiful Red River area of the Cumberland Mountains, and derives its name from the many rock arches in the area. We have secured 5 more rooms with twin beds and baths at $3.00 per night per person, and meals can be secured in the dining room. There are excellent outdoor camping facilities and many members of both clubs are planning to camp out. Cincinnati asks us to make preparations for an all day hike which will require canteens. Bring flashlights too, and rain equipment. Other less strenuous hikes will also be scheduled. Send reservations to Frances Ellison, 4470 Marcy Lane, Apt. 78, Indianapolis 5, Indiana. For transportation, Call Grace Breimeir, ME 1-9959.
