

Indianapolis Hiking Club

June - 1966

June 5 - Irvington Historical Hike

Meet at the Irvington Methodist Church, 30 N. Audubon Rd. Using information generously offered by members of the Irvington Historical Society, our leader will take us on a tour of this first center of culture in Indianapolis. A 300-year old oak tree, an Indiana Trail and some of the most interesting old houses in the midwest are among the highlights.

Leader - Betty Raymer, 359-8994

June 12 - Sweetwater Lake Hike

Meet at the Statehouse at 1:15. Meet again at the traffic flasher just past Trafalgar (Rt. 135) - at 2:00. At 2:15 we will be led from this point through a locked gate into private property -- so please be punctual! There is ample parking near the traffic flasher. Be sure to bring food for a cookout, following the hike, at the Home of Mr. Harry Weishaar.

Leaders - Al & Dora Buehler, 786-0380

June 19 - Marott Park

Meet at the Statehouse at 2:00 and again about 2:30 at the park entrance just north of 73rd St. on College. There is construction in the area so it is best to go north on Meridian, then east on 71st to College. This is a heavily wooded, little known, city park along Williams Creek. Leaders - Else & Herta Hauss, 255-5587

June 26 - Hoosier National Forest - Tent Camping & Hike

Campers meet at Hardin Ridge Camp site any time Saturday. Reach the campsite by continuing south past the causeway, using directions below. Mr. Ramborger will have maps available to mail to those interested.

On Sunday meet at the Statehouse at 1:00 and again at the south end of the causeway on Monroe Lake at approximately 2:30. Take 37 south. Before you get into Bloomington, take 46 east (left) for about 3 miles; curve to the right at the T and onto 446. The causeway is 6 or 7 miles to the south. There is parking to the left near the causeway.

Leader - L.K. Ramborger, 359-0855
