ATTENTION POTENTIAL VOLUNTEERS:

Volunteers are needed to help conduct the annual Historic Irvington Pleasant Run Run on Saturday, October 31 and a spaghetti dinner the night before. The Jaycees do much of the work, but about ten additional workers are needed for Friday, the 30th (about 5:00 PM - 9:00 PM). Saturday, they will need 20 - 25 people from 8:00 AM to noon to help with the competitive run/walk. This event benefits the Marion County Children's Guardian Home, and so this is a good chance to have some fun and do a good deed at the same time. If you need more incentive, you should know that all volunteers receive a long sleeved tee-shirt and a certificate for a free dinner at the Spaghetti Factory. For more information, please call Lisa Myers (545-1964) or Avis Shipman (271-1442). (Last year's IHC volunteers found this event to be worth their efforts.)
