THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hello to all of you.

Saturday, September 15th, Bill Larrison led us on a hike down at Spring Mill State Park. What a great day for a hike. The weather was just right and the camaraderie felt so good. We had a wonderful walk in the woods, as well as the warmth and friendship of other members of the club. Far removed from the realities of the tragedy that has struck our great country on September 11th. Much has happened and much lies ahead for all of us, but Americans are tough and resilient. We shall overcome.

We had 38 members at our September 13th General Assembly. John Woodard and Will Harrer were presented with 25-year membership certificates. Steve Warner has also reached the 25-year mark, but was unable to attend. Congratulations, gentlemen. Our new president, Bruce Meyer, was presented with the president's cane and gavel. Bruce will be a great president. Good luck, Bruce. The president's cane has an engraved leaf with each of the names of past presidents attached to it. Thanks to Win Pulsifer for making those for us. We enjoyed a great slide presentation put on by Al Dreho that included a hike in the Grand Canyon.

My last day as president will be September 30th. I have really enjoyed this past year. It was fun. My board members were great. Elaine Wright and I will be co-pathfinders next year. Now it's your turn to help us out. We want to know what kind of hikes you want and also what hikes you want to lead. (Just call 329-2779 or 573-4919 ext 16-daytime)

See you on the path, on the trail, in the woods and also at the Christmas Party on December 1st.

Fondly, Pat Lawler
