PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Spring is finally here. The Indianapolis mini-marathon is only weeks away. If you're not one of the record breaking 30,000 who have registered to walk or run on Saturday, May 8th you're still welcome to watch the start and finish downtown and cheer on your fellow club members and neighbors.

Ed Wright is leading a committee to review the use of information technology by the club. If you have ideas about how we might better employ technology to improve our processes, be sure to let him know.

Three of the club's officers focus on critical administrative functions. Michelle Buchanan serves as our Secretary, Mary Ann Layman fills the Treasurer role and Reba Wooden continues to garner publicity for the club through the media and by maintaining our web site. Say thanks, next time you see them.

Members have recommended three more books for your consideration:

The Turk: The Life and Times of the Famous 18th Century Chess Playing Machine (2002) by Tom Standage

One Hundred Years of Solitude (1991) by Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Things Fall Apart (1959) by Chinua Achebe

My "Across Indiana" hike series resumes on Sunday, April 25. The third leg will be 22 miles from Clay City to Spencer. We had 35 participants on each of the first two segments. We are able to match the hiking speeds of fast and moderate hikers, so please join us.
